 Re: End of Life Notice

Acromag is no longer able to affordably manufacture these products. As a result, Acromag has elected to discontinue the sale of these products. Please consider this official field notification.

Acromag is offering a last time buy opportunity before these models are retired on 12/1/2022. Many models still have a limited quantity available in stock. Please contact an Acromag sales associate at the factory to discuss your requirements, availability, and potential alternatives for your application.
